

Directions from Lorgues to La Napoule (via Saint-Raphaël) and back to Lorgues (via Les Arcs).

1. From Lorgues, take the D10 (Route Des Arcs) through Taradeau to Les Arcs. Always follow signs towards Les Arcs.
2. From Les Arcs follow signs towards Le Muy. Shortly after leaving Les Arcs, the D10 will merge with the DN7 (Route d'Aix en Provence).
3. From Le Muy follow signs towards Fréjus. After Le Muy, the DN7 becomes the Route de Fréjus.
4. Once in Fréjus, follow signs towards Fréjus Plage. If you plan on taking the train later, you can stop at the Gare de Fréjus for schedules and other info.
5. From the beach in Fréjus, follow Boulevard d'Alger east along the beach to Saint-Raphaël.
6. Continue on the road that runs next to the sea (D559). It runs all the way from Saint-Raphaël to La Napoule, becoming the D6098 near Le Trayas.
7. Once in La Napoule, find the Mandelieu-la-Napoule station in the center of town and board a train to Les Arcs-Draguignan.
8. Exit at the Les Arcs-Draguignan station and follow signs back towards the D10 and Lorgues.
9. When you arrive back in Taradeau, look for signs for the D73 towards Vidauban. You can continue up the D10 towards Lorgues, but I think the road is easier from Vidauban.
10. The D73 will lead you to the D48 where you'll have the choice of going left to Vidauban or right to Lorgues. Go towards Lorgues.
11. After ascending to the top of the D48, you'll reconnect with the D10. Follow signs towards Lorgues.
